Essential guide for tourists visiting Peru

Prologue

The Vice-Ministry of Tourism of Peru presents this guidance material for the traveler who wishes to visit our country. This guide contains information regarding the requirements, recommendations and procedures that must be taken into account before arriving, during the stay, and upon exiting the Peruvian territory.

This basic information document has been prepared taking into consideration the importance of welcoming tourists from Peruvian official institutions and all the institutions involved in tourist activities, with the aim of making the stay of whoever visits our country and whoever may wish to travel across its main tourist attractions easier and better.

This document has referential complementary information about personal and non personal goods that may enter Peru. This document also presents entry, customs and migratory requirements; vehicle temporary entry – if someone would like to visit our country in his/her own vehicle –, health and vaccination recommendations for traveling around our main tourist attractions without any problems. Besides, it has an updated directory with telephone numbers and directions of the main Peruvian institutions that provide tourist assistance.

We are sure that this guide will provide key information about current Peruvian regulations for your stay in our territory, which will allow you to have an unforgettable experience.

Claudia Cornejo Mohme
Vice Minister of Tourism

Introduction

The Ministry of Foreign Trade and Tourism has arranged with Peruvian institutions the preparation of basic and diverse information about useful requirements and procedures for tourists who visit us, attracted by the great diversity and multiculturalism of our land, which has a huge and invaluable cultural, natural and touristic heritage, as well as an excellent offer of services to make their stay even more pleasant in Peru.

In this guide, you will find some guidelines of basic information that should be taken into account when visiting Peru. It contains a compilation of main regulations and procedures that should be met and/or taken into consideration for entering, staying and exiting our country.

It includes the necessary information about immigration and customs procedures, current requirements for the different means of entry (by air, land or sea) and a directory of institutions, embassies and other organizations involved in the tourist activities that might be useful for enjoying a pleasant stay in our country.

Entry into Peru

1. MIGRATION REQUIREMENTS

Peruvian immigration regulations give tourists 183 inextensible days as a maximum limit of stay in the country. The granting of the period is at the discretion of immigration officials in Peru when entering the country and depends on the purpose of your visit.

We recommend checking the following table, if you need to apply for a tourist or business visa to enter Peru.

- Filled-out visa application form. APPENDIX I. (Page 85)
- Two recent Passport-size color photos with white background.
- Police Record Certificate.
- Hotel reservation or tour package that evidences your tourist status.
- To prove economic solvency according to the length that you are requesting for staying in the country, or a valid international credit card and/or bank statements.
- Once the application is submitted, a personal interview will be required.

General requirements to apply for a business visa

Besides the documents required for a tourist visa, you shall submit:

- A letter of economic solvency issued by the company you represent during your stay in Peru.
- A letter issued by the company or union which is sending you to Peru (letterhead paper, written and/or translated into Spanish) specifying the purpose of your visit and stating that you have enough economic support to cover all your expenses during your stay in our country, including the requested length of stay.
- Letter from the Peruvian company if the trip is linked to a national specific counterpart.
- If you are traveling on your own, you should submit an affidavit attesting your business status.

1.4 Valid documents for citizens from CAN and MERCOSUR

If you are a citizen or resident of the Andean Community (CAN) and the Common Market of the South (MERCOSUR) you may travel throughout the same territory as a tourist without requiring a visa. Therefore, you are permitted to enter Peru as a tourist by presenting either a valid and current passport or any national identification document from your country of residence such as:

Andean Community of Nations (CAN)

Bolivia:

- Unique National Registration Identification Document (RUN).
- National Registration Identification Document (RIN).

1.5 Valid documents for citizens from all countries.

Every foreigner entering Peru should carry his/her passport and corresponding visa (if needed). Immigration authorities will record your entry into Peru with an entry stamp including the days you are authorized to stay by the Andean Migration Card (TAM).

1.6 Andean Migration Card (TAM)

The Andean Migration Card will be given by the Peruvian immigration authorities, which should be presented when entering the country. This document must be kept during the entire stay, since its presentation is a requirement for formalities upon leaving the country (Page 79). You will find a facsimile of the TAM in Appendix II (Page 86).

2. ENTRY OF GOODS

2.1 Customs formalities for baggage entry.

Customs formalities for the entry of goods into Peru establish a special customs regime which indicates the items tourists may bring as baggage without having to pay taxes for their entry.

The Peruvian Customs Authority exercises the control over all persons, baggage, merchandise and means of transport that enter the national territory in accordance with the Customs General Law of Peru.

Travelers and residents from border areas, who occasionally cross the border, are exempted. They are governed by the special customs destination of border transit, as envisaged by the Customs General Law.

However, if the traveler carries the abovementioned goods, he/she will pay a one-time 14% fee over the total value of those declared goods, whose value as a whole does not exceed one thousand US dollars (US $1,000) per trip and three thousand US dollars (US $3,000) in one year as long as these are considered as baggage. In case of any doubt, please consult a customs officer.

Some definitions of baggage are mentioned below:

Baggage: It refers to all goods either new or used that a traveler may reasonably need as long as they are for common use or consumption according to the purpose and length of the trip, and which, by their quantity, nature or variety, are not presumed to be used for commercial or industrial purposes.

Accompanied baggage: Baggage that a traveler carries along at the entry or exit from the country.

Unaccompanied baggage: Baggage that enters or exits the country by any means of transport before or after the entry or exit of the traveler supported by the transport document. The unaccompanied baggage must arrive in the country within one month and up to six months after the traveler arrival date. If the baggage does not comply with these conditions it shall be subject to taxes.

Baggage affidavit: it is the official document of compulsory use whereby the traveler declares his/her accompanied baggage and/or other goods subject to taxes when entering the country. Appendix III (Page. 87).

Travelers should go through customs control on arrival in the country and fill out this affidavit. As for families, the head of the family may submit only one affidavit indicating the number of family members (parents and children under 18 years of age) and total baggage.

Travelers who do not carry the following goods:

- Cash money and/or financial instruments for more than ten thousand US dollars (US$10,000) or its equivalent in another currency.
- Cultural items, animals, plants and by-products, pesticides for agricultural use, veterinary products, animal food and others.
- Items subject to taxes or which you wish to enter in a temporary manner.

You may pass customs control with your passport and the affidavit, without paying taxes.

However, if the traveler carries with him/her the abovementioned items, he/she will pay a one-time 14% fee over the total value of those declared items whose total value does not exceed one thousand US dollars (US $1,000) per trip and three thousand US dollars (US $3,000) during the year, as long as these are considered as baggage. In case of any doubt, please consult a customs officer.

If applicable, taxes will be paid in US dollars or domestic currency, according to the exchange rate at the date of payment. Import of goods exceeding the established limits shall be subject to taxes.

Travelers who carry items that do not constitute baggage or holds items subject to taxes must declare them in the baggage Affidavit and present them to the Customs Authority.

Custody certificate: Bear in mind, if you carry restricted items without authorization, or prohibited items, as part of your baggage previously declared in the baggage Affidavit, the Peruvian Customs Authority may hand you a custody certificate that will be used for picking the items up when exiting the country.

Forms are of free distribution. If you are having problems filling out the form you may ask an Immigration or Customs officer for help.

- v) Up to three (03) liters of liquor, except those foreign beverages named "Pisco" or others including that word on the label produced abroad, since such products are not allowed to be entered into the country.

Paragraphs u) and v) are only for travelers over 18 years old.

Auxiliary Equipment:

- w) The auxiliary equipment and necessary devices for medical control and transport (wheelchair, stretcher, crutches, blood-pressure, temperature and glucose meters, among others) carried by disabled or ill persons.

Pets:

- x) One (01) live animal as pet, which must be previously subject to verification of fulfillment of the sanitary regulations established by the National Service of Agricultural Sanitation (SENASA). If the traveler enters the country with a pet in a carry-on baggage, the traveler must take the pet to the SENASA office for the corresponding evaluation. If there are no observations, SENASA will issue the authorization for the pet entry; otherwise, the pet will be kept by SENASA authorities.

The required documents for the entry of a pet are specified in page 34.

Gifts and others:

- y) Other items for the traveler's use and consumption and gifts that, given their quantity, nature and type, are not presumed to be destined for commercial purposes, for a total value of five hundred US dollars (US $500).
- z) One (01) portable electronic calculator.

2.1.2 Prohibited merchandise

Prohibited merchandise is that which is not allowed to enter or exit the national territory according to Peruvian Laws.

Before your arrival, you should find out whether the item you intend to bring into Peru is considered prohibited or restricted merchandise.

*For further information, please go to the following link:
[http://www.sunat.gob.pe/orientacionaduanera/
mercanciasrestringidas/index.html](http://www.sunat.gob.pe/orientacionaduanera/mercanciasrestringidas/index.html)*

2.1.3 Restricted merchandise

To enter restricted merchandise into the country, the authorization of one or more competent entities in charge of issuing authorizations, permits, resolutions, licenses, registrations etc., is required, depending on the legal regulations of each competent entity.

The list of the entities and control documents for merchandise under the purview of each entity can be found at the following link: http://www.aduanet.gob.pe/aduanas/infoaduanas/clasifica/clasificacionarancelaria/entidad/relacioncodigos.htm

2.1.4 Temporary entry of goods or objects with guarantee payment

You can enter Peru with your tools, equipment or goods subject to identification and individualization for a period not exceeding twelve (12) months. In order to remove these items from the country without the payment of taxes, you must pay a guarantee equivalent to the customs duties and other taxes applicable to the import of those items.

The guarantee will be refunded (after verification of the items declared) upon your exit from the country, which will require you to present yourself at the Customs Office at least three (3) hours in advance.

2.1.5 Temporary entry of goods for adventure tourism

You can enter personal use sports articles, items and/or equipment for carrying out activities related to adventure tourism without paying taxes, for a maximum of twelve (12) months after declaring them.

Those activities are the following:

- Hang gliding
- Hiking or mountain climbing
- Canoeing
- Hunting
- Underwater Hunting
- Spelunking
- Water Skiing
- Snow Skiing
- Kayaking
- Flora and fauna watching
- Paragliding

- Fishing
- Surfing
- Trekking
- Windsurfing

2.1.6 Lack of documentation and paid-off Taxes

If required taxes are unpaid or the necessary documentation for entering the merchandise into the country is insufficient, or if the merchandise must be nationalized through the normal import process, the items not considered as baggage must be left in custody so that the customs authority may carry out the corresponding verification. The traveler will receive from the customs authority a Custody Receipt for the declared merchandise and will be granted a maximum period of thirty (30) working days to comply with established requirements.

The items that remain under the custody of the Peruvian Customs Authority will be subject to a rate specified by the customs officer for storage.

Item confiscation

The Customs Authority will proceed to the confiscation if:

- During registration, verification or physical inspection, items not declared, but subject to taxes, are found.
- There is a difference detected between the quantity or type of item declared and the verification made by the Customs Authority.
- Prohibited merchandise or restricted-import merchandise is found, or the merchandise does not have the appropriate authorization. (See page 30).

Money declaration

All travelers who enter into or exit Peru are required to declare money in cash and the financial instruments in their possession to the customs administration through the baggage declaration form when the total amount exceeds ten thousand US dollars (US $10,000) or its equivalent in another currency.

It is recommended to consider the fact that the omission or falseness of the amount declared will result in the confiscation of the total amount you are carrying as well as civil penalties and/or criminal prosecutions in accordance with the Peruvian laws.

2.2 Sanitary aspects for baggage entry

The following products may enter the country as carry-on baggage by air, land or sea, without the need for an Animal Health Import Certificate (PZI) or Sanitary Export Certificate, as long as they do not come from other countries with sanitary restrictions.

- Cold meat and sausages or cooked meat products packed in hermetically sealed containers: up to 03 Kg. or one (01) mold.
- Cooked hams packed in hermetically sealed containers: up to 05 Kg. or one (01) mold.
- Processed and matured cheese packed in hermetically sealed containers: up to 10 Kg. or one (01) mold.
- Canned food: up to 02 Kg.
- Pasteurized and processed honey packed in hermetically sealed containers (from factory): up to 01 Kg.
- Milk and canned dairy products.

Pets

Only cats and dogs are considered pets and may only be entered into Peru by submitting documents that certify the animal's good health conditions, current vaccination and deworming, issued by the relevant authority from the country of origin.

Other animals

Animals (other than cats and dogs), products and by-products of animal origin (fresh meat, fresh cheese, non-cooked cold meat, bone-in ham, etc.) should have the Animal Health Import Certificate issued by the National Service of Agricultural Sanitation – SENASA of Peru and the Sanitary Export Certificate issued by the proper authority from the country of origin, specifying strict compliance of sanitary requirements established by Peruvian regulations.

Vegetables

Vegetable products being entered into the country as baggage by passengers and crew members are exempted from the Phytosanitary Import Certificate, as long as they are:

- Products under the 2 phytosanitary risk category, up to 01 kg.
- Grains and ground spices under the 3 phytosanitary risk categories, up to one (01) kg.

For further information on sanitary risk categories, please consult the following link:

http://www.senasa.gob.pe/0/modulos/JER/JER_Interna.aspx?ARE=0&PFL=2&JER=798

2.2.1 Health Permit requirements:

The requirements to process the Phytosanitary and Animal Health Certificates are:

- Application form addressed to the Head of the Plant and Animal Sanitation Service of SENASA of the territorial jurisdiction where you will make your entry into the country.
- Payment receipt or correspondent validation.

For further information on the requirements to obtain the sanitary certificates, please consult the following link:
http://www.senasa.gob.pe/0/modulos/jer/jer_interna.aspx?are=0&pfl=0&jer=1522

These certificates can be processed at any Executive Management Office of SENASA nationwide.

For further information on the location of the Executive Management offices of SENASA nationwide, please consult the following link:
http://www.senasa.gob.pe/0/modulos/JER/JER_Interna.aspx?ARE=0&PFL=0&JER=92

3. ENTRY REQUIREMENTS ACCORDING TO THE MEANS OF ENTRY

3.1 Entry by air

The immigration formalities and the formalities for the entry of goods are the same as those described in pages 10 and 24 respectively.

After disembarking, you will find Peruvian customs personnel at the airport close to the baggage claim. You will pass through a double-circuit baggage control system (Red-Green) for which you will have to press a button and the color (Red or Green light) will determine whether or not your baggage is subject to inspection. If you press the button and get the red light, your baggage will be checked by the Customs Authority. If not, you may then carry away your baggage without inspection (in some exceptional cases, baggage could be subject to inspection anyway).

3.1.1 Entry by private aircraft

To enter the country on private aircraft, it is necessary to obtain from the Peruvian Aviation Authority an international flight permit 30 working days in advance.

Documentation to be submitted includes:

- a) Request addressed to the Director of Certifications and Authorizations (DCA) of the General Directorate for Civil Aviation (DGAC), specifying:
- The type of activity to be carried out.
 - The routes and frequency or operation zones as well as the operation base and sub-base.
 - The aircraft type and make to be used in the activity.
 - The length of time for which you are requesting the permit.

b) Documentation in single copy, as long as it has been presented beforehand to the DGAC:

- Aircraft registration certificate.
- Airworthiness certification of the aircraft.
- Corresponding insurance certificates.
- Licenses of the technical crew members.
- Air Operator Certificate or equivalent document and, if applicable, operation technical specifications authorized by the proper aeronautical authority.

c) There are no processing fees. However, navigation services must be paid.

Private flights coming from abroad can only land in Peruvian international category airports, which are:

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| • Arequipa | Rodríguez Ballón |
| • Chiclayo | Cap. FAP José Abelardo Quiñones |
| • Cusco | Teniente FAP Alejandro Velasco Astete |
| • Iquitos | Crnl. FAP Francisco Secada Vignetta |
| • Juliaca | Inca Manco Cápac |
| • Lima and Callao | Jorge Chávez |
| • Pisco | Pisco |
| • Pucallpa | Cap. FAP David Armando Abensur Rengifo |
| • Pto. Maldonado | Padre José de Aldamiz |
| • Tacna | Crnl. FAP Carlos Ciriani |
| • Talara | Cap. FAP Víctor Montes Arias |
| • Trujillo | Cap. FAP Carlos Martínez de Pinillos |
| • Tumbes | Cap. FAP Pedro Canga Rodríguez |

3.1.2. Entry by commercial aircraft

It is important to consider that in case of an incident regarding your baggage transported in hold, be it delay or loss, total or partial destruction, you must immediately make the corresponding complaint to the airline. You may request information and assistance in order to make said complaint at the Tourist Information and Assistance Office (IPERU) or at the National Competition and Intellectual Property Protection Institute (INDECOPI). This entity has a Consumer Protection Department. (See pages 57-61).

3.2 Entry by land

When entering the country by land, the migration requirements and the formalities for the entry of goods are the same as those described in pages 10 and 24, respectively.

3.2.1 Private-use vehicle requirements.

The temporary entry of private-use vehicles owned by tourists shall be permitted without applying the prohibitions and restrictions related to their import, since, as tourists, they will not be able to conduct paid or lucrative activities.

You must request the temporary entry authorization for your vehicle at the Peruvian border control station.

3.2.1.1 Customs Passage Booklet entry

In order to enter Peru with your vehicle, you must present the following documents:

- Customs Passage Booklet or Carnet de Passages en Douane, with a validity period of up to one (01) year, issued in your country of residence by the local association affiliated to the Inter-American federation of Automobile Clubs (FIAC), the International Automobile Federation (FAI), the International Tourism Alliance (AIT) or the International Association of Accredited Automobile Clubs (IACR).
- Passport or Identity Document with which you entered Peru.
- Ownership or Registration card of the vehicle.

Under this regime it is possible for you to enter the country with your vehicle, trailer or other complementary units attached to it. (Page 55).

3.2.1.2 Temporary Importation Certificate Entry

If you do not have the Customs Passage Booklet or the Carnet de Passages en Douane, there is a special exceptional customs regime which allows the entry, stay and exit to vehicles for tourist purposes. To that end, a Temporary Importation Certificate is granted for ninety (90) days maximum and non-extendable.

In order to obtain the Temporary Importation Certificate, you must present the following documents:

- Passport or Identity Document with which you entered Peru.
- Ownership or Registration card of the vehicle

Vehicles entering the country are not subject to payment of any fee; however they will require the deposit of a collateral guarantee for the amount of the taxes that would otherwise apply to their entry into the country, which will be returned to you upon exiting as long as the maximum established stay of ninety (90) days is not exceeded.

Customs shall calculate the taxes on the Temporary Importation Certificate applying the current exchange rate at the date of the importation. (Page 55).

You should consider that:

- Those vehicles with foreign plates or registration which lack the relevant customs documentation, or those which would not have been removed from the country by the expiration of the granted time period, will be automatically confiscated in accordance with the relevant laws and provisions.
- The entry of a vehicle into the country requires the presence of its owner.
- Upon entry, an identifier will be placed on the vehicle and the importation certificate will be given to the owner.

3.2.1.3 Entry of Chilean and Ecuadorian citizens.

Peru has signed together with Chile and Ecuador the following agreements on the transit of their citizens in private-use vehicles:

With Chile: Agreement for the Entry and Transit of Peruvian and Chilean Nationals as Tourists with Identity Document.

- The tourist may enter the territory of the country of transit with his/her private-use vehicle, after presenting the registration card, driver's license and an affidavit written by the tourist at Entry Customs Control of the territory of the country being entered.

- The stay deadline for the vehicle in the other country may not exceed the period of stay of the tourist, which is of ninety (90) days, extendable by another 90 days.

With Ecuador: Agreement between Peru and Ecuador on transit of People, Vehicles, River and Sea Vessels and Aircraft, applicable to:

- Trans-border Transit: The driver must carry his/her national identification document, the vehicle's registration or ownership document, driver's license and the Vehicle Entry Certificate issued by Customs of the country in transit.

The stay time period for the vehicle shall be based on the driver's stay authorization, which can be a maximum of thirty (30) days.

- TBi-national transit: The driver must present the following documents to the Customs Authority of the country being entered: National Identification Document, Vehicle Registration or Ownership Card, Driver's License and Single Temporary Importation Document.

The stay time period for the vehicle shall be based on the driver's stay authorization, which can be a maximum of ninety (90) days.

3.2.1.4 Traffic Accident Mandatory Insurance (SOAT)

SOAT is an insurance established by Peruvian regulations which covers care expenses for persons, whether or not they are passengers, who may have suffered injuries or death as a consequence of a traffic accident.

All motor vehicles circulating in the Peruvian territory must have a current (SOAT). If you visit Peru with your motor vehicle, you may purchase this insurance in the main cities and border control stations of the country.

*For further information, please consult the following link:
<http://www.soat.com.pe/sobreelsoat.html>*

3.3 Entry by sea

When entering the country by sea, the migration requirements and the formalities for the entry of goods are the same as those described in pages 10 and 24, respectively.

3.3.1 Entry on a recreational boat for tourist purposes

All recreational boats coming from abroad for tourist purposes may enter through the following Major Ports of Peru:

- Callao
- Chimbote
- Huarmey
- Ilo
- Iquitos
- Mollendo
- Matarani
- Paita
- Pimentel
- Yurimaguas
- Pisco
- Pucallpa
- Puerto Maldonado
- Puno
- Salaverry
- San Juan
- Supe
- Talara

3.3.2 Entry on Cruise ship

If you visit Peru on a cruise ship, the maritime operator should coordinate with the relevant authorities the disembarkation migration and customs controls.

We recommend you to consult beforehand with the person in charge of visits and excursions in your cruise regarding the activities that you may engage in during your stay on land, according to your itinerary.

4. TRAVEL INSURANCE POLICY

In the event that your health insurance does not cover medical expenses abroad, it is advisable to have a travel insurance that covers your possible health expenses during your visit in Peru.

There are different types of insurance that are adapted to the type of tourist activity to be engaged in but, in general terms, it is preferable that the policy provide coverage both for health and baggage.

The types of travel insurance vary from one insurance company to another. You may subscribe it before your arrival in Peru. Ask for information from your travel advisor or directly from the insurance companies, preferably upon making your reservation or purchasing your trip.

Some advisable insurance:

- Assistance in the event of an accident.
- Assistance in the event of illness.
- Compensation for loss of baggage.
- Guarantee against cancelation or interruption of travel.

It is important to verify if your travel insurance allows direct payment to the providers or if there is a subsequent reimbursement of health expenses made abroad.

5. HEALTH-RELATED RECOMMENDATIONS

Prevention is vital for health care when embarking upon any travel.

In medical terms, Peru is located in the tropical region of South-America; hence it has an incidence of illnesses related to tropical areas, particularly those transmitted by mosquitoes such as malaria, yellow fever and dengue. Although there is no risk of catching those diseases when visiting areas of our Amazon region, you are advised to consider the recommendations in sub-paragraph 5.1 of this guide regarding the vaccine against yellow fever. (Page 45).

Furthermore, it is advisable to bring all medicines in their original packaging. It is recommended to carry medical prescriptions and a letter signed by your physician describing your diagnosis or medical conditions including medication generic names. If you carry syringes and/or needles, make sure to bring a letter from your physician documenting your medical needs.

The following is a list of medicines and other supplies that may be useful during your trip:

- Antibiotics.
- Antidiarrheals.
- Acetaminophen (Paracetamol) or Aspirin.
- Anti-inflammatories.
- Antihistamines.
- Antibacterial ointments.
- Steroid cream or cortisone (for poisonous wounds or allergic rashes).
- Bandages and dressings.
- Thermometer.
- DEET insect repellents (for the skin) and Permethrin.
- Sunblock.
- Altitude sickness pills.

5.1 Vaccination

Peru requires the yellow fever vaccination certificate only from people coming from infected countries in Africa and the American continent.

The table below shows recommended vaccines for visiting the country:

Vaccine	Recommended for	Destinations where it is recommended
Chickenpox	Travelers who have never had chickenpox.	Country-wide.
Hepatitis A	All travelers.	Country-wide.
Hepatitis B	Travelers who will be in prolonged contact with the local population.	Amazonas, Loreto, San Martín, Ucayali, Junín, Madre de Dios
Yellow fever	Travelers in Amazon areas below 2300m. Vaccinate at least 10 days before the visit.	Amazonas, Loreto, San Martín, Ucayali, Junín, Madre de Dios

6. CURRENCY EXCHANGE

The official currency of Peru is the Nuevo Sol. The majority of tourism-oriented businesses accept American dollars; however, Nuevos Soles are indeed necessary in order to pay for basic services such as public transportation.

It is advisable to exchange currency at the formal establishments such as banks or currency exchange offices, which exchange both dollars and Euros. It is worth noting that the exchange should take place when bills are in perfect condition.

Stay in Peru

7. DOMESTIC FLIGHTS

When traveling by air from one city to another within Peru, it is recommended to consider the following information:

7.1 Passenger boarding

Airline personnel will request the following documents:

- Boarding pass.
- Identification document with which you entered the country.

7.2 Baggage

Amount of baggage included in your airfare

Transport of your baggage is included in your airfare up to a specified limit. Each airline company has its own policy regarding weight and amount of baggage included in the airfare, which is usually two (2) pieces of baggage to be stowed in the hold, weighing approximately 23 Kg in total.

Baggage excess

In case you are carrying baggage that exceeds the weight limit included in the airfare, you could load it onboard paying the amount established by the airline as excess baggage. This fee is to be paid at the moment of weighing; therefore it is recommended to have enough money or another payment method available when checking in.

Carry-on luggage

AdBesides the baggage sent in the hold, the passenger is allowed to carry as hand luggage certain specified objects, such as a handbag, a camera, and others as long as they do not exceed the allowed dimensions or weight that are usually specified on the plane ticket. Normally, the weight limits range between 8 and 10 Kg and the dimensions are of 55 cm x 35 cm x 25 cm. Note that, as hand luggage on domestic flights, you are allowed to carry beverages in plastic bottles, unlike on international flights.

You are advised to check beforehand with the airline company about the limits on dimensions and weight, both for baggage stowed in the hold and for carry-on luggage.

Limitations and disclaimers

Airline companies may refuse to transport certain items which, due to their size, shape, weight or characteristics, may not be considered as baggage. For better safety, it is recommended not to include in baggage stowed in the hold perishable or fragile items, valuables (money, jewels, electronic items, etc.), medicine, documents, keys, etc. Some companies do not assume responsibility for the damage to, or loss of, these items.

Forbidden items on passenger planes

- Explosives, grenades, gunpowder.
- Chemical substances.
- Percussion caps, detonators.
- Defensive pepper spray, etc.
- Pyrotechnic and mechanical flares.
- Tear gas, laughing gas, etc.
- Fireworks and any kind of gunpowder.
- Electroshock weapons.
- Safety cases, safety boxes and moneybags with built-in lithium batteries and or pyrotechnic material.

Items forbidden in carry-on luggage and in the hold, which may be transported as cargo, declared as Hazardous Merchandise

- Extinguishers.
- Insecticides.
- Kerosene or acetone.
- Lighter fluid.
- Paint.
- Medical products.
- Mercury.
- Bleach.
- Radioactive material.
- Poison.
- Drainage cleaning liquids.
- Propane bottles.
- Scuba tanks.
- Camping equipment with combustibles.
- Cleaning products.
- Acids, corrosives or solvents.
- Wet batteries.
- Butane gas.
- Carbon dioxide cartridges.
- Dry ice.
- Flammable liquids.
- Gasoline.
- Ether.
- Electric paralyzes and similar defensive devices.
- Liquid or gel alcohols of more than 250 milliliters.
- Electric prods for cattle.
- Gas torch lighters.

Items forbidden in carry-on luggage, which may be transported as baggage in the hold, declared under airline policy

- Toys that simulate arms or explosives.
- Low-consumption light bulbs.
- Baseball bats, golf clubs, ice hockey sticks.
- Ice picks and paperknives.
- Scissors, shaving blades and shavers.
- Anesthetics, ether.
- Martial arts tools.
- Swords, sabers, foils and the like.
- Harpoons and other underwater weapons.
- Weapons parts or spare parts.
- Multiuse tools.
- Knives, penknives, daggers and the like of any dimension and make.
- Sporting ammunition (5 Kg. maximum per passenger).
- Pistols, revolvers, rifles, shotguns, cartridges and ammunition.
- Hatchets, machetes.
- Bows and arrows.
- Brass knuckles, leaded or flexible batons.
- Compressed air tanks.
- Mountain-climbing picks and ice picks.
- Wheelchairs with non-spill battery.

Minors not accompanied by either parent on inter-city flights within Peru

After migration control upon entering the country, when it comes to domestic flights within Peru, consult with the airline regarding the required formalities for minors traveling unaccompanied by both parents.

Searches

If you are carrying declared valuables or if you have any impairment, you may request that the search be conducted in private.

Confiscations

The security staff that carries out the inspection duties at the control stations and security areas (passenger terminal and access to airplane tarmac) is authorized to confiscate any prohibited and dangerous item.

Weapons

In order to transport legally allowed weapons or ammunition, you must present to the airline operator, upon check-in (at presentation stands or counter), your permit documents, turning in the unloaded weapon for it to be inspected and taken to a safe place. If the airline accepts its transport, it shall impose that the weapon and its ammunition be kept in their custody until the destination is reached. In such cases, the passenger shall be given a receipt in order to claim the weapon after the flight. Illegal weapons or weapons without documentation shall not be allowed on board, and the airline shall inform the relevant authority about them.

Guide dogs

Guide dogs may embark, wearing a muzzle throughout the flight and in the company of their owners. Acceptance of these animals necessitates a guide-dog training accreditation, as well as the corresponding health certificate. Most airlines do not charge for accepting guide dogs on board.

7.3 Single Fee for Airport Use (TUUA)

As its name indicates, this fee must be paid for the use of airport facilities.

If you embark as a passenger on a commercial aircraft, this fee is included in the cost of the airfare.

For domestic flights on your private aircraft, you may pay such fee in the facilities of each airport.

For domestic flights, the amount of the Single Fee for Airport Use varies between three (US$3) and five (US$5) United States dollars.

8. TRAVELING IN YOUR PRIVATE-USE VEHICLE

8.1 Entry with your Customs Passage Booklet or Carnet de Passages en Douanes

If you entered the country with the Customs Passage Booklet or Carnet de Passages en Douanes, you may extend your stay for a period normally not exceeding three (03) months, as long as you attest, within the authorized length of stay, the force majeure cause that prevents you from removing your vehicle from the country.

If the vehicle were to be involved in an accident, its removal from the country shall not be demanded. Indeed, you would be required to inform the closest Customs office before the expiration of the deadline in order to do the corresponding paperwork.

8.2 Entry with Temporary Importation Certificate

In the case of an entry with Temporary Importation Certificate, the stay is of ninety (90) non-extendable days; however, this length of stay may be suspended in the following cases:

- If, during the validity of the Temporary Importation Certificate, the tourist should have to leave the country without the vehicle. If such is the case, the tourist must notify, in writing, the Customs administration through which the vehicle entered the country, in order that the time limit of ninety (90) calendar days may be suspended. This notice may be presented at any Customs Administration (SUNAT) in the Republic, which will then forward it to the Customs Administration through which the vehicle entered the country. It is recommended to keep the receipt of that delivery with the date of notice on it.
- You must add to said notice: Stub No. 2 "Free Transit and Exit" of the Temporary Importation Certificate, as well as the police certificate corresponding to the proof of address and details of the owner of the premises where the vehicle remains parked.

Exit from Peru

12. MIGRATION REQUIREMENTS

12.1 Duplicate of the Andean Migration Card (TAM)

As indicated in page 24 of the present guide, in order to exit the country it is necessary to present the Andean Migration Card (TAM) bearing the stamp of entry into the country.

In the event of its loss, you may request a duplicate of the TAM. The requirements for requesting it are:

- Form F-002, which you can obtain from the following link: <http://www.digemin.gob.pe/formularios/f-002.pdf>
- Receipt for request fees (S/ 8.05) from the Banco de la Nación.
- Showing the original passport or other document presented upon entering the country, and providing a simple copy of the part with the information and stamp of entry or exit from the country.

You may accomplish this formality at the Migration Control Directorate, Migration Head Offices, Migration Control Station, Border Control Station or at Jorge Chávez International Airport. (See page 73).

12.2 Exceeding the length of stay

If you should exceed the length of stay in Peru authorized by Migrations, you shall be subject to payment of a fine in the amount of one United States dollar (US$ 1.00), or its equivalent in the national currency, for each day beyond the authorized length of stay, counted from the expiry of your visa up to the date of your effective exit from the country. This amount must be paid to the migration authority at the moment of accomplishing the exit migration control formalities. If you do not do this, the sanction of Mandatory Exit from the Country

If you do not do this, the sanction of Mandatory Exit from the Country may be applied to you, along with banishment from the country, after intervention by the Immigration Division of the Department of State Security of the Peruvian Police Force.

13. EXIT OF GOODS

Travelers who are not border area residents and who carry a passport or other official document for exiting Peru may carry along goods that are considered as baggage, without tax payment. (See page 27).

13.1 Exit of replicas of cultural goods

All goods that are part of the National Cultural Heritage are forbidden to be taken out of the country, except for those which have the corresponding authorization from the Ministry of Culture.

If you wish to leave the country with any replica as part of your baggage, you must request from the Ministry of Culture a "Certificate of Goods not Belonging to the National Cultural Heritage for Exporting Purposes". To request further information, you may enquire at the General Directorate of Supervision and Control of the abovementioned Ministry. It is not enough to show a receipt or purchase ticket from the store or market where the replicas have been bought.

The Peruvian State protects its cultural goods, hence the prohibition to take them out of the country.

13.1.1. Requirements for the exit of replicas as baggage

- Request addressed to the Ministry of Culture.
- Affidavit.
- Two frontal photographs of each piece, 9 x 12 or enlarged (the photograph must be focused and must cover the entire piece) in photo- or print-quality paper. In the case of identical pieces or works, the two required photographs must be presented for all the objects.
- Photocopy of the National Identification Document or passport, for natural persons.
- Photocopy of Registration in the Public Records Office, for legal persons.
- Payment receipt issued by the treasury of the Ministry of Culture:
- From 01 to 100 pieces (each) S/. 5.00 Nuevos Soles.
- If needed, a simple power of attorney, whereby the natural or legal person authorizes a representative to request the Certificate.

The Certificate has a validity of forty-five (45) calendar days, from its date of issue.

13.1.2. Control stations of the Ministry of Culture

The Ministry of Culture has specialized staff at the international airport and main tourist borders who are authorized to confiscate protected cultural goods. In the event of such confiscations, they must issue a "Verification Report" with a copy of the tourist's passport or National Identification Document, accordingly. If the items are found not to be archeological or material items belonging to the National Cultural Heritage, the goods shall be returned to the interested party directly by the Ministry of Culture, with clearance to be taken out of the country.

13.2 Sanitary aspects for the exit of baggage

If you wish to take, animals or products, or by-products, of animal origin, as part of your baggage, it is necessary that you fulfill the sanitary requirements established by each country of destination, after obtaining the Animal Health Export Certificate (CZE), which is granted by the National Service of Agricultural Sanitation (SENASA).

*For further information, please consult the following link::
http://www.senasa.gob.pe/0/modulos/JER/JER_Interna.aspx?ARE=0&PFL=1&JER=127*

14. FORMALITIES ACCORDING TO THE MEANS OF EXIT FROM THE COUNTRY

14.1 Exit by air

For the exit from the country of persons and their goods, the same migration and customs formalities apply as for their entry.

14.1.1 Single Fee for Airport Use (TUUA)

As indicated in sub-paragraph 7.3 (see page 54) of the present guide, this fee must be paid for the use of the airport facilities.

The Single Fee for Airport Use for international flights departing from the airport of Lima and Callao is of thirty (US$30) United States dollars.

14.1.2 Exit on commercial aircraft

Identification

You must identify yourself with your travel document (boarding pass, passport, National Identification Document, immigration card, other identification documents issued by the member authorities of the Andean Community or Laissez-passer from the United Nations) to airline staff, airport security staff, migration authorities, police or customs authorities, correspondingly. If you do not present the documents that are demanded, you shall not be allowed to go on board.

Baggage

We recommend that you read sub-paragraph 7.2 (see page 49) of the present guide, in which you will find detailed information about:

- Amount of baggage included in the airfare.
- Baggage excess.
- Carry-on baggage.
- Limitations and disclaimers.
- Items prohibited on passenger aircraft.
- Items prohibited in carry-on baggage and in the hold, which may be transported as cargo, declared as Hazardous Merchandise.
- Items prohibited in carry-on baggage, which may be transported in the hold, declared under airline policies.
- Items allowed in carry-on baggage and in the hold, declared under airline policies.
- Searches.
- Confiscations.
- Weapons.
- Guide dogs.

Food and plants

You must not include in your checked baggage, or carry-on baggage, products whose entry into the country of destination is prohibited or restricted; such as seeds, flowers, fruit, herbs, vegetables, meat products, organic products, plants with or without soil, and by-products of animal and vegetable origin, since they may be withheld and destroyed by the sanitary authorities at airports.

If you are not sure as to whether the item you wish to transport is forbidden or hazardous, consult with the airline operator.

14.2 Exit by land

When you exit the country with your vehicle, you need only present yourself at the corresponding customs control and register your exit with the documents you were given upon your entry.
